THIS & THAT DIVERSE/VARIOUS

So ein TATA-LKW basierte damals auf einem in Lizenz gebauten Mercedes-Flachschnauzer, das Tuktuk hatte meist einen Vespa-Motor und der Ambassador war 1958 das erste in Indien gebaute Auto und blieb bis zu seinem Produktionsende 2014 (56 Jahre lang) nahezu unverändert. Das Holz ist ebenfalls recycelt und stammt von alten Türen, Toren und Fischerbooten. So bekommen diese für den Schredder vorgesehenen „Schätzchen“ ein neues Leben in unseren Gefilden und geben jedem Ambiente eine besondere Note.

The TATA Truck was based on a licensed-built „flat nose“ Mercedes, the Tuk Tuk mostly had a Vespa motor and the Ambassador, in 1958, was the first Indian-built car and remained until its production end in 2014 (56 years), virtually unchanged. The wood is also recycled and comes from old doors, gates and fishing boats. And that's how these materials get a new life in our world and make each area a special touch.
